The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 16. to Saturday January 20. 1722.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of January, 1721.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to appoint George Ambler, Eſq; Sheriff for the County of Montgomery.

Lisbon, Jan. 10, N. S. On the 17th of September laſt, ſome of the Royal Officers entred the Houſe of M. Wingfield and Roberts Britiſh Merchants here, upon Information againſt them relating to their Traffick, ſecured their Perſons, and ſeized all their Effects. Mr. Worſeley the Britiſh Envoy by Order from the King his Maſter, interpoſed earneſtly in their behalf; in Anſwer to which Inſtances it was ſignified to him in Form on the 8th of this Month by Don Diego de Mendonça Secretary of State, That though Proceſs had been carried on againſt the ſaid Merchants, and Sentence of Death with Confiſcation of all their Effects pronounced upon them by the ordinary Judges, yet the King of Portugal being deſirous to ſhew the Particular Eſteem he has for His Britannick Majeſty, and the ſincere Friendſhip with which he correſponds with him, would exert his ſpecial Grace towards thoſe Merchants, as knowing it would be very acceptable to his ſaid Majeſty; that therefore he had paſſed a Decree, by which he had pardoned the ſaid Wingfield and Roberts, not only with reſpect to the Sentence of Death they were under, but alſo any other of Baniſhment that might be inflicted upon them, as likewiſe that of Confiſcation of their Effects, both as to that Part thereof which belongs to the Royal Chamber of Lisbon, and to what might belong to the Informer; that ſo they might be intirely exempt from all Puniſhments, both Corporal and Pecuniary. This the Secretary of State declared to the Envoy he had been directed by the King his Maſter to communicate to him, that he might tranſmit the ſame to His Britannick Majeſty, in order to ſatisfy His ſaid Majeſty how much the King of Portugal deſired to oblige him in every thing.

Paris, Jan. 24. On the 22d Inſtant a Chapter was held, at the Tuilleries in the King's Preſence, of the Knights of the Order of the Holy Ghoſt, when the Duke d' Oſſuna and Prince Albani Nephew to the late Pope were named Knights of that Order. The Infanta of Spain is to arrive this Day at Bourdeaux, whence the Prince of Rohan will come hither Poſt; all the Spaniſh Ladies who attended that Princeſs to the Frontiers of France, left her the Day of the Exchange of the two Princeſſes, and returned into Spain with Mademoiſelle de Montpenſier who was expected at Lerma the 20th Inſtant; and they write from thence, that immediately after that Princeſs's Arrival their Catholick Majeſties and the whole Court would return to the Eſcurial.

St. James's, January 19.

The Marqueſs de Cortance, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, has notified to His Majeſty the Marriage concluded between the Prince of Piemont and the youngeſt Princeſs Palatine of Sultzbach; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Whitehall, January 19.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to nominate the Reverend Dr. Joſiah Hort Dean of Ardagh, to be Lord Biſhop of Leighlin and Fernes in the Kingdom of Ireland, in the Room of Dr. Vigors lately deceaſed.

Whitehall, January 19.

Baron Sparre, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden, has notified by Order of his Maſter, That as the Contagious Diſtemper continues to afflict the Kingdom of France, his Swediſh Majeſty, for preſerving his Dominions from the ſame, has thought fit to direct ſeveral Regulations to be obſerved by the Britiſh Merchants trading to the Ports of Sweden.

I.

That every Ship going from any of the Ports of Great Britain, or the Iſlands belonging thereto, particularly from thoſe in the Channel, ſhall be provided with Paſſports, and Certificates of Health made and ſigned by the Governours or Chief Magiſtrates of the Place where ſuch Ship ſhall take in her Lading.

II.

That every Ship ſhall have a Bill of Loading, containing a true and exact Specification of the Quality and Quantity of all the Goods on Board, and particularly whether they are of the Growth or Manufacture of Great Britain, with the Names of the Places whence they come, and of thoſe whither they are to be carried. And if they are Goods not of the Growth or Manufacture of Great Britain, the Certificates ſhall ſpecify the Places whence they were brought, and the Time when, and that at ſuch Time the ſaid Places were not infected, or ſuſpected of Infection.

III.

That every Ship muſt be provided with an exact and particular Liſt of the Number and Names of the Crew, and of the Paſſengers on Board, ſworn before the Magiſtrates of the Places where they embark, and atteſted and ſigned by the ſaid Magiſtrates.

IV. That

That the Maſter or Captain of each Ship ſhall be obliged, if required thereto, upon his Arrival in the Port of Sweden, to which he is bound, to make Oath that he comes from the ſame Port that the Ship ſailed from, that he has taken no Goods on Board, neither in any other Port, nor upon the Sea, that he has not anchored or touched at any Place, particularly in France, ſuſpected of Infection at that Time, or which has been infected for theſe two Years paſt.

Theſe Regulations are hereby made publick, to the end that all His Majeſty's Subjects whom it ſhall in any wiſe concern may take Notice of the ſame, and conform themſelves thereunto accordingly.

TOWNSHEND.

General-Poſt-Office, London, Jan. 20, 1721-22.
